

Venkatraghavan Bringivijayaraghavan (“Venkat Bringi”) is a Director, Micron India and leads the DRAM and Emerging memory team. His 20+ years of industry experience spans around DRAM, SRAM & Register file development. In the past he has been associated with Micron Technology USA, IBM India, GLOBALFOUNDRIES India and Marvell India.

Venkat holds over 54 granted US patents (and several are pending) with many of his patents actively powering up several customer chips. He has mentored over a dozen team members with their debut patent and nurtured employees on technical leadership.

Venkat holds a Master’s degree in Electrical and Computer Engineering, University of Nevada, LV, USA & Bachelor’s degree in Electronics & Communication Engineering, University of Madras. He is an undergraduate gold medalist.

Venkat is a recipient of IBM Innovation Excellence award & recognized as a Master Inventor at GLOBALFOUNDRIES. He was part of the Patent evaluation board, for the memory committee, at IBM, GLOBALFOUNDRIES and Marvell.